25                  ORDER GRANTING
26                  PLAINTIFF A.G.
27                  DESIGN'S MOTION TO
28                  AMEND

29                  This matter is before the court on Plaintiff A.G. Design's Motion to Amend. (Dkt. #125). This is a
30                  patent infringement case but the Plaintiff also asserted state law claims of unfair competition, breach of 31                  contract, interference with business relations, and violation of the Washington Consumer Protection Act. The 32                  Plaintiff requests to leave amend its complaint to add an additional state law claim of misappropriation under
33                  RCW 19.108 et. seq., and an additional federal claim for trade dress infringement under 43(a) of the Lanham
34                  Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

35                  Because the Court has continued the trial date for January 12, 2009, and the parties have conducted
36                  limited discovery in this case, there is no prejudice to the Defendants in allowing amendment. The Court
37                  hereby GRANTS the Plaintiff's Motion to Amend (Dkt #125). Defendants are granted leave to file its
